

2009 Supreme Championships

The Australian Working Sheepdog Associations Supreme Championships are being held in South Australia in 2009.

The trial is being held from Tuesday, 22nd September to Sunday, 27th September, 2009 at the Strathalbyn Football Oval, Strathalbyn, South Australia.

Strathalbyn is located on the beautiful Fleurieu Peninsula in South Australia. Close to South Australia's capital city Adelaide, Strathalbyn is less than an hours drive down the South Eastern Freeway and is well situated to host the 2009 Supreme Championships. There are fantastic facilities at the ground for campers and other affordable accommodation is located within the township.

Nestled in a premier wine producing area and rich in antiques and history, Strathalbyn is sure to offer trialers a wonderful trialing experience.

The South Australian State Championships and Champion of Champions event will be held as a lead up to the Supremes at Milang, only a short fifteen minute drive from Strathalbyn. The opportunity exists for trialers to travel to South Australia for two weeks and compete at three premier events. For those wanting to stay longer, they can travel to the York Peninsula and compete at the Paskeville Field Day and Maitland trials following the Supremes. All dates have been posted on the South Australian web site.
